

Starting Point

You are not a failure and you have not failed the year.

Remember you have passed assignments and exams before. So, you can do it again.

Use the following tips and ideas to get you on your way.

What are referrals?

If you got less than 40% on an undergraduate assignment or less than 50% on a postgraduate assignment, you have a referral. A referral is your opportunity to submit this work again and pass.

What are deferrals?

If you were not able to submit an assignment you have a deferral. This means you can do it now and still pass it.
