Light refreshments from 2.00pm and at 3.30pm

Venue: Liverpool John Moores University

Speakers:

Dr Farath Arshad, Head, Centre for Health and Social Care Informatics – CHaSCI, Liverpool John Moores University; Dr Gabor Barton, Dr Karen Toque, Professor Dave Burton, Professor Godfrey Mazhindu

Description:

A number of short presentations on significant Health Informatics R&D projects will be followed by light refreshments and demonstrations / displays allowing people to see and discuss developments. This event takes on greater significance following ASSIST's call for more investment in Health Informatics R&D in its submission to the recent "Independent Review of NHS IT". Talks will include:

- Dr Farath Arshad – Introduction and overview of the work of the Centre for Health and Social Care Informatics (CHaSCI), its remit, what it does at LJMU and beyond and how all this work is co-ordinated
- Dr Gabor Barton – Virtual Rehabilitation in Cerebral Palsy
- Dr Karen Toque – Public Health Project
- Professor Dave Burton – The EPSRC Meguruth & ECSON Projects – Providing Real Time Information for Radiotherapy.
- Professor Godfrey Mazhindu, Dean of Health Sciences – Closing Remarks

ASSIST and BCS Members may reserve a place at this event by emailing their intention to attend to the Branch Secretary Michael.Morris@merseycare.nhs.uk
