

work related learning and volunteering fair

Art and Design Academy

19 November 2010 ■ 10:00am - 4:00pm

Welcome to the Work Related Learning and Volunteering Fair. The organisations listed below are all based within the public exhibition space. The Guest Speakers programme will be in the Johnson Foundation auditorium off the exhibition space.

If you require any help please ask one of the WoW Team

Royal National Institute for the Blind (RNIB)

- need help and support with IT and Home Technology. Home volunteers will visit homes of RNIB members.

www.RNIB.org.uk

Victim Support - this national charity gives free and confidential help to victims and witnesses of crime. They are looking for volunteers to work in the community and in the Magistrates and Crown courts. They also have research opportunities.

www.victimsupport.org.uk

Business in the Community – have individual or small team opportunities to use your skills and talents to act as a real help to communities in areas such as art, design, market research, business skills, caring, health and wellbeing.

www.bitc.org.uk

Liverpool Citizens Advice Bureau – are seeking volunteers to become Financial Capability Trainers who will deliver training sessions (on budgeting, credit, banking, savings, pensions etc) in a variety of settings. They are also looking for Money Guides - who will provide one-to-one information and guidance to clients on budgeting, banking, saving, credit, insurance, pension etc. They also need research assistants, to assess client profiles, analyse and frame the results into the current socio-economic environment.

www.citizensadvice.org.uk

Campaign Against Living Miserably - are looking for Press & PR volunteers, to help them promote their campaign. They are also actively seeking Media & Filming students to help interview music superstars at the Merseyside festivals (artists like White Lies, David Guetta, Friendly Fires & Pendulum), and to edit the content.

www.thecalmzone.net

Claire House are looking for students who want to put theory into practice and develop ideas into reality, in their 10 bedded hospice for children (with life limiting and threatening conditions) from across Merseyside, Cheshire, North Wales and the Isle of Man

www.claire-house.org.uk

Merseyside Police - Positive Action Team are keen to recruit people in a variety of volunteering opportunities in the following roles; special police officers, community support officers, administration and business, IT, communications, call centres, customer service, personnel and finance. Also in specialised roles such as crime scene investigators, custody assistants, and stable and kennel management.

www.merseyside.police.uk

The Windows Project is a resource of writers and artists from a wide range of backgrounds and cultures. Founded in 1976, the Windows Project has gone on to encourage creativity through writing across Merseyside and the North West. They are looking for assistance with editing footage for promotional DVDs, graphics for Smoke Literary magazine and publicity/website for Spike publishing.
www.windowsproject.co.uk

Volunteer Centre Liverpool - help decide what kind of volunteering suits the individual. They match the person up with suitable projects and provide national recognition for the volunteering undertaken.
www.volunteercentreliverpool.org.uk

Groundwork Merseyside is the largest environmental charity in the Merseyside region and has a variety of office and practical conservation based volunteer opportunities available. Training will be given, and opportunities exist within the following teams; finance, marketing and communication, business services, communities, landscape architects and the practical land team.
www.groundworkmerseyside.org.uk

The Community Foundation is always looking for individuals wanting to volunteer within the charity sector. Each year they welcome a number of volunteers who assist them with their events in marketing, fundraising and general office activities, helping to support their mission, to build a stronger Merseyside.
www.cfmerseyside.org.uk

Workers Education Association (WEA), a national charity provider of further adult education would like assistance towards a Community Fashion Show 2011. They wish to engage local community groups in a fashion and textile course, which culminates in a high profile fashion show. Skills and previous experience will be taken into consideration. Most importantly, they're looking for passionate students who love fashion and design, have great communication skills and can commit their time and effort into a fantastic project.
www.wea.org.uk

The Brothers of Charity seek volunteers to help provide a range of services to people with learning disabilities to support their individuality, choice, rights and dreams.
www.brothersofcharity.org.uk

Pride in Liverpool (PIL) is looking for volunteers to assist in developing both an encyclopaedia, and a memory and myths book as a legacy for future generations. The website records the gathered information, which will remain as a living document.
www.prideinliverpool.org.uk

Liverpool's Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender Network are looking for volunteers to help their strategy to bring together LGB&T individuals and organisations working with LGB&T people to provide a collective voice for the community in Liverpool.
www.lcvts.org.uk

Oxfam have diverse opportunities for volunteering and interns. Interns are volunteers with clearly defined roles, which are predominantly project based for a specific period of time of either 3, 6 or 12 months. The expectation is that interns volunteer for between 2-4 days per week.
www.oxfam.org.uk

Everton in the Community offer individuals varied opportunities. Through the positive promotion of sport, physical activity and the brand of Everton Football Club, they are committed to provide high quality, accessible participation and development opportunities that positively change lives and bring enjoyment to our communities.
community.evertonfc.com

11:00am - 11:45am YOUR BIGYEAR

The Biggest Official Event of Global Entrepreneurship Week

Launched by Smaller Earth in July 2010 it is One of the biggest Official Events of Global Entrepreneurship Week to encourage global citizenship and social responsibility through enterprise. Since being launched has attracted an amazing 44,489 applicants from 168 countries.

Entrants are competing in a range of different challenges to progress in the competition which reaches a climax in November as the 24 finalists gather in Liverpool for a week of activities and further challenges. Come and hear about the project and its aims and objectives and how you can get involved next year

11:45 - 12:00 noon BA (Hons) LJMU DANCE DISPLAY

The dance students are looking for opportunities to work with not-for-profit organisations

12:00 noon - 12:30 pm OXFAM

Oxfam is a vibrant global movement of dedicated people fighting poverty and injustice. People power drives everything they do, from saving lives and developing projects that put poor people in charge of their lives and livelihoods, to campaigning for change that lasts. The talk will explore the volunteering or research opportunities that are available

12:30 - 13:00 EVERTON IN THE COMMUNITY

Everton in the Community was formed in 1988, with the mission to initiate and deliver a range of engaging sports related activities, programmes and schemes with the aim of making a difference to the lives of people on Merseyside. During the last year alone, it has provided ongoing development opportunities for over 30,000 participants. The talk will explore the volunteering or research opportunities that are available

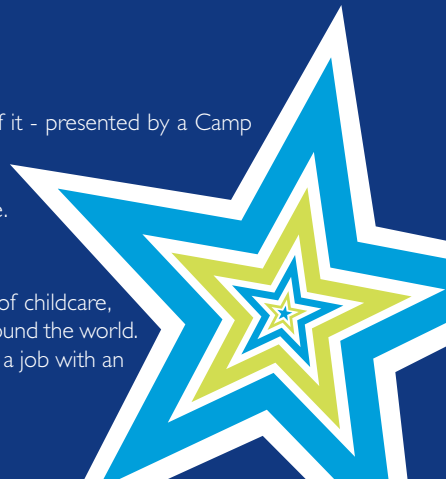

13:00 - 13:15 LJMU DANCE DISPLAY

13:15 - 13:45 CAMP LEADERS

Life at Summer Camp In The USA and how you can be part of it - presented by a Camp Leaders American Camp Director. How becoming a Camp Leader can help you in the world of work. Camp - a fantastic way to enhance your CV and explore America at the same time.

14:00pm - 14:45pm SMALLER EARTH

Make a difference and get work experience through a variety of childcare, community development and conservation volunteer projects around the world. Not sure of your next move? Internships in the USA, how to get a job with an American company. Explore Your World with Smaller Earth for further information visit www.ljmu.ac.uk/wow, email: gdc@ljmu.ac.uk or phone the Graduate Development Centre on 0151 231 8099

Graduate Development Centre