

Skills@LJMU

What is the service?

Skills@LJMU

Who may access the service?

LJMU students and LJMU Staff

What are the benefits of the service?

- Provides support, expert advice and a range of activities and services to enable you to develop your academic and transferable skills to be successful at university and beyond

What is included?

This service includes

- Provision of an inclusive Academic Skills curriculum
- Programme of structured skills training seminars and workshops (classroom based and online webinars)
- One-to one support to students in the form of drop-ins and bookable appointments (face-to-face, online and telephone)
- Academic skills consultancy service for academic staff
- Design and dissemination of diverse and inclusive learning and teaching materials
- Maths and Statistics advice 'Drop In' service
- Library inductions
- Programme of structured and bespoke Library sessions including: advanced literature searching and referencing

What should I expect?

Accessible locations across all campuses for the delivery of student-facing academic skills development opportunities and support services
Continuous monitoring and evaluation of our services in order to maintain consistently high standards of service
Collaboration with other University stakeholders to contribute to the development of all students' academic achievement abilities
95% of students attending a Library Induction or Advanced Information Literacy session will agree or strongly agree that they have achieved the learning outcomes on the evaluation forms

Availability

This service is available within Library Services Full Service and Evening and Weekend hours