SUPPORTING STUDENTS AND GRADUATES INTO PAID INDUSTRY ROLES

There is no limit to where your talent can take you. Across the Liverpool City Region businesses are looking for talented people, just like you. Your currency of knowledge, academic insight and fresh ideas are helping our economy to build a brighter future for us all.

We can support you to get ahead of the competition, gain new perspectives and proactively plan ahead. By talent-matching you to some of the Liverpool City Region's most dynamic companies you will be truly inspired, through insights and techniques, as you become part of our future workforce. We will also be there by your side for the duration of your placement so that if and when you need some extra support you can count on us to be there for you.

Start your journey and apply today to join our one of our funded programs. If successful, we'll match you to a business through one of our exciting student internships or placements. We'll also support you along the way with a bespoke package of training and mentoring and we'll even pay you to earn while you learn.

At the end of the program you'll have gained that competitive edge through your up-to-date industry knowledge as well as your business contacts and outstanding CV.

WHAT CAN YOU EXPECT?

- A 140-hour part-time student placement to fit around your studies, or
- A graduate role for those that have already finished studying
- Access to a variety of roles across a range of sectors
- Extra training and support when you need it
- A salary paying the Living Wage or above

As a member of the Graduate Futures community, you can also tap into a range of workshops, events and training sessions to help you develop your skills, grow your professional networks and enhance your employability. You will have the opportunity to meet industry professionals who will deliver workshops on a range of topics including developing personal resilience, building confidence, and harnessing your academic knowledge for work in a professional setting.

AMBITIONS TO BECOME A FUTURE LEADER?

Then look no further! In addition to our Future Leaders training that you'll receive when as part of your internship or placement with us, you'll also have the opportunity to join our Future Leaders Advisory Group. Here you can have your say and get involved in informing and shaping the work that we do. It's a fantastic opportunity to develop your leadership skills and meet some of the region's key decision makers as you add to your portfolio of experiences.
