2. TERMS OF OFFICE

- 2.1 Ex-officio members are appointed by virtue of their role at LJMU and remain a member of Academic Board whilst appointed to that role.
- 2.2 Elected members are elected for a term of office of three years, following which they must stand down and seek further nomination and election.
- 2.3 A further three-year term of office is possible, with six years representing the maximum term of office possible on a continuous basis.
- 2.4 Elected members who have served six years continuous terms of office can be re-elected to the Board at a later date, provided that there has been an identifiable break in service of at least three years.
- 2.5 In support of transparency and openness, to foster a greater understanding of the work of the Academic Board and to encourage greater participation, a maximum of two LJMU staff can attend an Academic Board meeting in the capacity of Observer. Staff wishing to attend meetings as an Observer should send a request by email to the Academic Board Secretary. You can find a copy of the Staff Observer Procedure at <https://policies.ljmu.ac.uk/UserHome/Policies/ViewPolicyStart.aspx?id=80&l=1>

Approved Board of Governors 6.7.15

Further amended by the Board of Governors on 16.11.15 to reflect an extended term of office to three years. Amended by the Board of Governors 21 November 2016 to update the membership of the Academic Board. Further amended 03.07.17 to reflect new Faculty structure.

- 2.6 As from 7th July 2004, members of the Board of Governors have been invited to attend Academic Board meetings in the capacity of Observer.

3. NOMINATION & ELECTION PROCESS

- 3.1 The method of selection or election of members of Academic Board is subject to the approval of the Board of Governors.
- 3.2 The current method is by nomination and, if necessary, election by those members of staff eligible to vote in a given category.
- 3.3 A nomination must be supported by two members of staff who can be full or part-time members of staff from the appropriate category, of whom one must be the line manager of the Nominee. Nominees are also required to provide a short supporting statement.
- 3.4 Elections are held electronically, but with the provision of paper ballot forms for staff without direct access to an LJMU networked PC.

4. ACADEMIC BOARD NOMINEE TO THE BOARD OF GOVERNORS

- 4.1 By virtue of the Instruments of Government, up to two members of the Board of Governors may be teachers at the University nominated by the Academic Board. The current membership of the Board of Governors provides for two members of Academic Board.
- 4.2. The Academic Board will make direct proposals for two members of teaching staff from the wider University community (including members of the Academic Board) to become members of the Board of Governors. The proposals will be received by the Nominations Committee who will select on the basis of the current skills and membership requirement of the Board at that time.
- 4.3 Academic Board Members wishing to seek membership of the Board of Governors are required to meet the requirements as laid down in the document "Role of Governor" and, in particular, the Nominations Criteria in Annex 1.
- 4.4 Whilst Staff Governors are elected by their peers, they specifically do not perform a representative role or hold a mandate for the group of staff to whom they belong. Staff Governorship is designed to provide a staff perspective based on the opinions and experience of the individual Governor.
