STUDENT APPEAL AGAINST EXCLUSION OR EXPULSION PROCEDURE

1. Introduction

- 1.1. The University defines Exclusion from the University as a total prohibition from all LJMU premises, services and activities for a defined period of time.

The University defines Expulsion from the University as a total prohibition from all LJMU premises, services and activities permanently.

The University defines Expulsion from the Programme as the permanent removal of a student from a specific programme of study. Where students are expelled from a programme of study they may be able to apply for other programmes.

- 1.2. All recommendations for Exclusion or Expulsion must be formally approved by the Vice-Chancellor. Students may be excluded or expelled from their programme of study or Liverpool John Moores University (LJMU or the University) as an outcome following:

- Student Disciplinary Procedures,
- Academic Misconduct Penalties,
- A Criminal Convictions Panel,
- A Fitness to Practice Panel
- Following consideration under the Fitness to Study procedure,
- Any relevant policy or procedure that applies to students.

Following the Vice-Chancellor's approval, the student will be formally notified of the decision and the appeal against Expulsion and Exclusion procedure.

- 1.3. Students will receive a separate notification from the relevant Board of Examiners informing them of whether the BOE intend to confer an award, and if so what that award will be. Appeals against the award, or against the decision to withhold an award, can be made via the Academic Appeals process and the form is available on the MyLJMU student portal.

- 1.4. Information disclosed during the Appeal against Expulsion/Exclusion Procedures is confidential to all parties.

Further information on Confidentiality and Data Protection in this procedure is available in the Student Governance Privacy Notice <https://www.ljmu.ac.uk/about-us/public-information/student-regulations/guidance-policy-and-process>

2. Appeal against Exclusion or Expulsion

- 2.1. Students have a right of appeal to the Board of Governors, following formal notification of Exclusion or Expulsion, The appeal is not a reopening of the investigation and will not consider new evidence other than evidence that was genuinely not available to the appellant at the time of the original decision.
- 2.2. Disagreement with the decision to exclude or expel is not in itself grounds for appeal. Appeals will only be considered where the student can demonstrate that the relevant procedures have not been followed correctly and/or that the decisions made were unreasonable in the circumstances.
- 2.3. The University will deem an appeal to be 'not eligible' and reject the appeal if there is no reference to the appeal criteria as stated in 2.1 and 2.2 and/or there is no evidence to support their claim.
- 2.4. Normally, appeals will be heard within 28 working days of being lodged, unless varied by mutual agreement.
- 2.5. The request for an appeal must be made in writing with full supporting evidence within ten (10) working days of the date of the decision letter.
- 2.6. Appeals should be addressed to the University Secretary via the Student Governance Office LJMU, Exchange Station, Tithebarn Street Liverpool, L2 2QP. Email: StudentGovernance@ljmu.ac.uk
- 2.7. The Governors will delegate responsibility for hearing an appeal to the Exclusion/Expulsion Appeal Panel, consisting of the following members who have no connection to, or prior knowledge of, the case:
 - i. Chair of the Appeal Panel, who is an independent or co-opted member of the Board of Governors; advised on matters of procedure by the University Secretary (or nominee).
 - ii. a member of University staff representing the Strategy Delivery Forum (SDF).

- 2.9. The Exclusion/Expulsion Appeal Panel Hearing Protocol is outlined in Appendix 1.

- 2.10. The Panel will determine whether the appeal is upheld, upheld in part or not upheld and determine one or more of the following:
- No further action (the original decision and sanction remain the same).
 - Defer their decision pending further information.
 - Remove the sanction and provide a clear rationale for doing so.
 - Refer the matter back to the appropriate stage of the preceding process for reconsideration in light of the findings of the Appeal Panel.
 - Amend outcome/findings and provide a clear rationale for doing so.
 - Amend decision/sanction and provide a clear rationale for doing so.
- 2.11. The decision of the Appeal Panel is final and the student and the relevant Director will be notified in writing of the decision by the Panel Adviser within five (5) working days of the decision.
- 2.12. Prospective students who have previously been expelled from the University must disclose this in any future applications to any LJMU programmes. The decision whether or not to offer a place on any programme will rest with the Director of School (or nominee) and the General Counsel and University Secretary (or nominee). Failure to disclose such information will result in applications being rejected. Students who enrol without declaring that they have been previously expelled from LJMU or another Higher Education institution will be subject to disciplinary proceedings.

3. Completion of Procedures and the Office of the Independent Adjudicator (OIA)

- 3.1. A Completion of Procedures letter will be issued to students when the internal procedures have been completed.

Appendix 3: Witnesses and Character References

Witnesses

Within these Procedures, the University considers a witness to be a person who has witnessed the actual events or incidents under consideration, not character witnesses or character referees. Character witnesses or character referees will only be accepted as written statements and will not be party to meetings or hearings.

As part of the Process, those staff investigating the matter and/or making a finding on the matter will assess the relevance and weighting of any witness statements.

Students, staff and witnesses are advised that the matters are confidential to the parties of the process.

It is a serious disciplinary offence for any person to attempt in any way to influence a witness in relation to their evidence, or to request any other person to do so.

Students or staff who provide false information in their witness statements may be subject to disciplinary procedures.

The University can normally only interview witnesses who are employed by LJMU or who are students at LJMU and normally only when they agree to be interviewed.

Witnesses may be interviewed in their professional capacity for example a member of the police or a Professional, Statutory or Regulatory Body (PSRB)

Witnesses may be asked by Student Governance to submit signed witness statements and to respond to any queries in relation to their statement.

Staff and Students may also submit a signed written statement from external witnesses.

Appeal against Expulsion Hearing

Witnesses will not normally be required to attend an Appeal against Expulsion Hearing, unless there is a specific reason why it is not sufficient merely for the witness' statement to be included as part of the Panel Papers.

The Hearing is not a reopening of any investigations and witnesses who have been interviewed as part of any investigations will not normally be required to attend a Hearing.

The student and the Presenting Officer may request a witness to attend the Student Discipline Hearing and any such request will be considered by Student Governance and the Chair. It is at the discretion of Chair of the Hearing whether a witness is relevant to the proceedings.

All parties have the responsibility to indicate an intention to call witnesses by providing the list of names to Student Governance at least three (3) working days before the Hearing. Witnesses called by the Presenting Officer will be notified of their requirement to attend. Students who wish to call witnesses must make their own arrangements.

Where appropriate the Chair may also call witnesses or request further information to clarify the circumstances of the case.

Other Information: Personal and Medical Circumstances, Character References

Students can submit evidence of extenuating circumstances, personal circumstances and other mitigating factors that they wish the University to consider in relation to the case.

Evidence can include medical letters, character references and testimonials etc.

Mitigation, extenuating and personal circumstances are not considered by the University in deciding whether a student is guilty of an offence but will be considered by the University when deciding about:

- the procedure to follow (for example in some cases the matter will be referred to Fitness to Study Procedures)
- Whether advice, support or reasonable adjustments should be made, including consideration of whether to procedures are suspended.
- And when making a decision in relation to a penalty or sanction.

Character References and Testimonials

Students can submit character references and testimonials that they wish the University to consider.

Student Guidance:

Character references and testimonials are considered more credible if they can provide an objective opinion about students and are from a person who the student has had direct contact with during their time as a student at LJMU. Friends, relatives, former school teachers, and fellow students do not meet these dual criteria and are not recommended.

Students can submit character references and testimonials from people who are not connected to the University or programme of studies, for example an employee.

It should be made clear in the document that is supplied what the referee is aware of with regards to the circumstances of the case. There is no requirement for students to tell the writer about the case, but the document should make it clear whether or not the opinions are being made in the full knowledge of the case.

Character references and testimonials should be dated, include the name, address and contact details of the author, should where possible be on letter headed paper and signed, and should explain how the author knows the student.
